and introducing

The Chrysalis Awards

Pooling resources for the good of the community and destination is vital in this ever-changing economic climate. Join us as we promote the value of teamwork between tourism and business – a partnership with the common goal of enhancing our community.

The Chrysalis Awards celebrate our work together as we help the business community add to its awareness of the tourism industry, and help tourism partners better understand the needs and role of local businesses. In appreciation of the many contributions made by the business and tourism industries, the Chrysalis Awards welcome nominations in recognition of their commitment to excellence.
